

The image is a detailed guide to U.S. Army uniform regulations, specifically focusing on the placement and types of insignia, ribbons, and badges. It features four models in dress uniform (three women and one man) with callouts indicating the correct placement of various items. The guide is divided into several sections: 'class A' (top), 'badges' (middle), 'ribbons' (left), and 'devices' (right). The 'ribbons' section lists various awards and their corresponding ribbon colors and designs. The 'badges' section lists various badges and their corresponding designs. The 'devices' section lists various devices and their corresponding designs. The 'class A' section provides general instructions on the placement of insignia and ribbons. The 'badges' section provides instructions on the placement of various badges. The 'devices' section provides instructions on the placement of various devices. The title 'ARMY the United States' is prominently displayed in the center.
